MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

Welcome to the 2nd issue of the 2nd year of the President's News Digest.

I would like to start this edition by congratulating all staff and students for the signing of the Memorandum of Cooperation with LSBU and the launching of the new College of Engineering.

The high attendance by staff and some students during the ceremony have made a big difference. We should all be very proud of this achievement which wouldn't have happened without Prof Waheeb Alkhaja's vision and leadership. It is one of our flagships and that the speeches given by our VIPs have all emphasised the importance of such collaboration as it paves the way towards achieving HEC vision. Our dream is becoming a reality because of all your hard work.

The signing ceremony under the patronage of Dr Mona AlBalooshi, Acting Secretary General of the HEC was an event to be remembered for a long time. The presence of HE the British Ambassador was much appreciated by all attendees. Many thanks to Prof Zedan for all his hard work and the great support from the VPs, Deans, advisors, Directors of Units, etc. Tania Kashou as event coordinator has planned all activities with precision. Ruqaya Mohsin as an MC and together with her team, they work so hard to project something exceptional during the ceremony. I know for sure that they were working very late the night before the ceremony. The design produced by Asma Al Mutawa is one of the most creative I have ever seen. All our academic colleagues and admin have made serious contributions and I am grateful to all of you. Many thanks go to Mohammed Najjar and Thaer Ramini for involving the students in the ceremony. Prof David Phoenix and Prof Paul Ivey of LSBU were full of praises of our colleagues and students.

On the evening of 10 November, the Chairman of the Board of Trustees attended an exhibition (showcasing trade and educational links between UK and Bahrain) and a reception organized by the British Embassy in Bahrain in honour of HRH, the Prince of Wales who was visiting the Kingdom. Prof Waheeb Alkhaja and Ms Ruqaya Mohsin welcomed HRH to our stand at the exhibition and the Chairman presented him with a crystal prototype of our Academic Building. This is yet another fantastic achievement of our University and our collaboration with British Universities have already put us on the international map.

From 10 to 12 November, the President, Mr Mohamed Alkhaja, Mr Abdulla Alkhaja, Edyta, and our student Maryam took part in "This is Bahrain Rome". This was a fantastic opportunity to support and unite behind His Majesty the King's vision that Bahrain is the land of peace, co-existence, and tolerance. HH Sheikh Nasser Bin Hamed AlKhalifa visited our stand at the exhibition in Rome.

I am delighted to inform you that Dr Assem Al-Hajj's application for senior fellow of the Higher Education Academy has been successful. This is fantastic news as we now have two senior fellows, Dr Assem Al-Hajj and Ms Yvonne Johnson. Many congratulations to Dr Assem! We are still waiting to hear about two other colleagues' applications for senior fellows of HEA.

Finally, I am pleased to let you know that we have started a new scheme, employee of the semester award which is managed by Dr Mohammed Yousif and Mr Abdulla Alkhaja and colleagues in HR, based on defined criteria. I am pleased to inform you that Mutaleb has been selected as the winner of the first award of this scheme. Well done Mutaleb and congratulations!

PERFORMANCE APPRAISAL WORKSHOP

Randall S. Schuler, "Performance appraisal is a formal, structured system of measuring and evaluating an employee's job, related behavior and outcomes to discover how and why the employee is presently performing on the job and how the employee can perform more effectively in the future so that the employee, organization, and society all benefit."

ASU has decided to put in place a systemic process to appraise their employees, either academic or administrative.

Last Thursday, a workshop was held at Abdallah Nass Auditorium to present this process to the Academic Staff. All academic staff attended the workshop except those who had exams invigilation.

Employee Evaluation Policy and the new form of appraisal were presented and explained to the academic staff.

The main objectives of the new system are:

- To clarify the role and responsibilities of employees
- To clarify expectations and standards of performance
- To provide opportunity for two way communication and constructive feedback
- To raise awareness of strengths and areas for personal development
- To recognize achievement and develop a systemic process for promotions and incentive programs
- To reveal problems and inefficient work practices
- To provide opportunity to discuss and identify training needs

Performance evaluation ratings will subsequently be used to tie in the rewards/ incentives, compensation system and promotion criteria of the University.

The appraisal policy also defines a framework for employees who may wish to appeal against the final rating being assigned to them.

On top of this by implementing this policy and procedure, ASU will comply with the HEC Accreditation requirement (Indicator 4.12 “Management must monitor and review academic and administrative staff performance through a clearly documented and transparent appraisal system.”)
