

As part of its procedures to deal with developments related to the emerging corona (covid 19) virus, and based on the directives of His Royal Highness Prince Salman bin Hamad Al Khalifa, Crown Prince, Deputy Supreme Commander, First Deputy Prime Minister, in facilitating the procedures and continuity of the educational process, the university held a remote meeting chaired by the university's president, Professor Dr. Ghassan Awad included all the university employees from the academic and administrative staff.

This meeting comes within the precautionary measures taken by the university to preserve the safety of its members, as it dealt with a set of issues related to work and the continuation of the educational process, in light of the conditions experienced by the Kingdom of Bahrain and the world, where the university has been keen since the announcement of the precautionary measures in the Kingdom of Bahrain, to reduce direct communication Among the employees to maintain their safety by holding all its meetings and activities related to remote work and over the Internet.