In addition, we do our utmost to minimize any obstacles our students may encounter in the Admissions and Registration. Therefore, we have developed an online registration and payment systems to make the registration process easier.

Moreover, through training and continuing professional development, the Directorate staff and members are ready to help and assist our students in the best way we can.

The Directorate of Admissions and Registration is aware of the importance of communicating the important issues to students, therefore, we use several channels of communication so that students are kept informed in a timely manner. We are also happy to receive your opinions and suggestions through the communication channels provided in the website.
