

Welcome to ASU Training, Development and Continuing Education Centre. I would like to wish you every success during your training with us, whether you are looking for a course or whether you are an existing student.

The ASU Training, Development and Continuing Education Center allows students & organizations to access a wide range of topics with a strong practical background which will help develop the skills and productivity in people. Training Services are only truly of benefit when we meet or exceed our client's expectations; we listen carefully to our clients and seek sustainable solutions they can rely on.

Your choice of ASU Training, Development and Continuing Education Center as a training destination is the best choice as it combines between expertise and research with a vision to produce individuals able to work effectively in the market and add value where possible.

Mr. Yasser Mustafa

Director of Training, Development and Continuing Education Centre