

Courses that can be equalized are those that match ASU courses in content and number of credits with grade C or above.