

It tests students' language skills online and has two sections:

Language Use

- Tests vocabulary, functional language and grammar.

Listening

- Tests listening for detail and gist.

Both sections focus on how language is actually used and the learners' understanding of meaning, giving the teachers an accurate picture of their abilities.