

If a student has an exam during his/her working hours, he/she should take an official letter from the deanship of Admission and Registration that shows the timings of the exam and submit it to his/her workplace.