PRESIDENT'S NEWS DIGEST

A Visit to the Indian Embassy

On Tuesday, 23rd August 2022, the University President, Prof Ghassan Aouad, and the Director of Marketing and Public Relations, Ms Ruqaya Mohsin, visited HE Piyush Srivastava, the Indian Ambassador, in the kingdoms of Bahrain, as the visit was also attended by Mr Ravi Kumar, the Second Secretary and Head of Chancery. During the visit, both parties discussed different topics on strengthening mutual relations and long-term collaborations, especially in the student recruitment area, where many school activities and educational events are planned to be conducted in the coming period in collaboration with the embassy. Nonetheless, it's worth emphasizing that the Indian community is the second largest after the Bangladeshi in the kingdom as they cover a noticeable proportion of overall student demographics.

Bahrain Bar Society visit to Applied Science University

The University President Prof Ghassan Aouad, the Director of Marketing and Public Relations, Ms Ruqaya Mohsin, and the Executive Secretary in the President Office, Mrs Ayat Nass, received a delegation from Bahrain's Bar Society members, headed by Mr Hassan Ahem Bedaiwi, the Society President along with the other members. Prof Aouad introduced the newly launched Law British programme in collaboration with London South Bank University in addition to the existing Law programmes offered by the University. Both parties discussed ways to enhance the partnership through signing an MOU, which encompasses activities such as training, workshops and reviews of the programme's study plans and recommended improvements.

University Stand at City Center Mall Bahrain

A three-day promotional stand (25th, 26th, and 27th of August) has been held at the City Center Mall Bahrain as part of the Marketing campaign for recruiting students for the first academic semester 2022/2023. The stand was visited by a good number of students, parents, and those who are interested in the programmes offered by the University and the British programmes in partnership with London South Bank University. The University President, Prof Ghassan Aouad, visited the stand and showed a sense of appreciation to all who have been part of organizing and participating in the three-days campaign and encouraged the enrichment of the University students' recruitment objectives.

Mini English Lesson – Common Interjections in English

An interjection is a word that expresses a sudden, strong feeling such as surprise, pain, or pleasure.

Interjection	What it expresses	Example
Hmm	Hesitation, doubt, disagreement	Hmm. I'm not so sure about that.
Ouch	Pain	Ouch! That hurts!
Wow	Surprise, amazement	Wow! Look how tall that man is!
Hooray	Delight	Hooray! Here comes a bus at last!
Ahem	Getting attention	Ahem, could we focus on the task at hand?
Oops	Something done by accident	Oops! I forgot to bring the phone charger!
Phew	Relief	Phew! What a relief!
Aww	Pity Cuteness	Aww! That's so sad! Aww! That baby is so cute!
Shh	Requesting silence	Shh! Keep quiet!
Yum	Delight (about food)	Yum! I love chocolate cake!
